

I am opposed to this proposal. It is technically unsound, it will cause undue interference to amateur radio communications, and worse, it reeks of political money mongering.